Overview

The state-owned Druk Green Power Corporation (DGPC) owns and operates power plants while the Bhutan Power Corporation, also state-owned, performs transmission and distribution. Despite the country's total installed capacity of 2,453 MW, the generation output experiences reduction to approximately 415 MW during the dry season (December - March) due to low river inflows as all the existing plants in Bhutan are run-of-the-river schemes with little or no storage capacity. With Thimphu's growing urban population and reliance on hydropower, seasonal fluctuations demand innovative solutions. "Containerized storage isn't just technology; it's the. The global solar storage container market is experiencing explosive growth, with demand increasing by over 200% in the past two years. Pre-fabricated containerized solutions now account for approximately 35% of all new utility-scale storage deployments worldwide. With our expertise and commitment to excellence, we have earned a reputation as one of the best solar EPC companies in the Bhutan. Our comprehensive range of services includes solar installation, solar energy solutions, and. The Thimphu Power Storage project's 200MWh lithium-ion phase isn't just about batteries - it's about rethinking mountain Project Goals and Approach to Transformational Change: The project aims to install 30 MW of solar PV and strengthen the regulatory environment to accelerate Bhutan's renewable. Punakha—After months of delays caused by incessant rain and prolonged monsoon, Phase II of Bhutan's first utility-scale solar power plant in Yongtru, Sephu Gewog, is finally online, with both phases now feeding electricity into the national grid and the project preparing for handover to the Druk.
