

Can I put candy in the locker

Overview

Let's break down how to keep your candy safe, fresh, and bug-free. Most lockers are made of metal, which can trap heat and moisture, especially in crowded hallways. This creates a warm, humid. If your parents don't let you have candy (or if you have siblings who try to eat all your candy before you do), the best thing you can do is hide it. A bad hiding spot can not only get you caught and in trouble, but it. What Cannot Be Stored in a Storage Unit?

Moving your stuff into a storage unit is an exciting and extensive process. You must pack everything into boxes, take inventory, and pick the right size locker for your belongings. Bring a moderately large amount of money ($10 or so) and walk up to a close-by shop. Storage companies often post a list of prohibited items in their Terms of Service documents.
